Native Adult & Youth Ministries

Jerry and Deanna Wright founded this non-profit, non-denominational Evangelical Christian Organization in 1998 to assist Christian Native Americans in evangelizing and discipling their own people. "We come along side them, our ministry is to encourage, to equip, and to evangelize." Through a variety of activities ranging from fellowship dinners, assisting with moving, being involved in VBS, to offering a listening ear and a praying heart, they strive to maintain open relationships with Native families.
